to join our growing team, helping us to expand our company across Europe as effectively as possible. Our ideal candidate is a strong personality and must be a natural hands-on initiative-taker who has a track record of success and ability to thrive in high-growth, fast-paced environments.

What you'll be doing:

- Build a new brand with an innovative product
- Define brand positioning and brand strategies
- Design, conduct, and analyse consumer research and brand health tracking
- Partner closely with product and marketing to define campaign performance metrics to ensure a high level of effectiveness and contribute how our product looks like
- Design and maximise the ROI through market mix modelling
- Manage the company's public image by working closely with marketing and PR
- Build partnerships to deliver the brand message to the relevant target group

What skills you'll need:

- At least 1 year of experience in a brand related environment
- You enjoy working closely with a team and it's something you have done previously
- Hands-on mentality and a willingness to take an active role
- Strong execution skills and far above average drive
- Analytical driven mindset, excellent communication skills
- Willingness to work hard in a fast-driven startup environment
- English full professional proficiency, other languages (e.g. German) are a plus
- Knowledge in (online/mobile) banking and the payment industry is a plus
- Working experience in a startup environment is a must

At NumberX it's about getting *it done and owning what you do. Our team is highly entrepreneurial and autonomous, we treat people equally and give freedom to everyone.
